Dear Sir,

At the risk of being labeled a crackpot, I would like to suggest that your brother John Foster, be examined by an expert chiropractor, which I am one.

Have had many cases of cervical difficulties and very rarely indeed fail to correct the cause of the pain.

I can't but feel it would be remiss on my part not to offer my services or at the very least the suggestion that you employ the services of another in the same field.

Affectionately yours,

Dr. E.C. Dillabough
